Distinguished Guest Speaker Mischa Montgomery, Esq.

Mischa Montgomery is a native Houstonian who has been in the legal field for 17 years. Mischa graduated from Center for Advanced Legal Studies in 2006. From there she navigated the civil litigation spaces practicing in areas such as family law, business, and commercial litigation.

She then pursued becoming an attorney, making this change in 2015, by attending Thurgood Marshall School of Law at Texas Southern University. She graduated in 2018. After passing the bar and becoming licensed in 2019, right before the pandemic, she opened her own firm by taking cases in family law until the job market opened back up. Subsequently, she joined a business and commercial litigation and transactional firm. Her primary practice is Business and Commercial Law with some IP, real estate, and oil and gas aspects. She most recently completed a data privacy and cybersecurity certificate through the Southern University Law Center.

Mischa's current passions include becoming a tech girl in the corporate space specializing in cybersecurity, data privacy, and computer programming. Mischa is a huge foodie and desires to travel around the world. However, her greatest passion is helping and educating people which is why she became an attorney.
